ASSURANCES: Title IX of No Child Left Behind Act includes the following consultation requirements concerning the participation of nonpublic schools in Title I: Part B, Subpart 3: William F. Goodling Even Start Family Literacy Program.
1. In general - To ensure timely and meaningful consultation, a local educational agency, educational service agency or consortium of such agencies shall consult with appropriate private school officials in the geographic attendance area of the Even Start site. This consultation must occur during the design and development of the program, under this Act and before the grant application is submitted to DESE, on issues such as: (A) how the children's needs will be identified; (B) what services will be offered; (C) how and where the services will be provided; and (D) how the services will be assessed.
2. Timing - Such consultation shall occur before the agency or consortium makes any decision that affects the opportunities of eligible private school children, teachers, and other educational personnel to participate in programs under this Act.
3. Discussion required - Such consultation shall include a discussion of service delivery mechanisms that the agency or consortium could use to provide equitable services to eligible private school children, teachers, administrators, and other staff.
